FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

REF: NOMINATIONS

25TH FEBRUARY 2017

It has come to the attention of the Jubilee Party that some dishonest aspirants are peddling falsehoods that they are already in possession of nomination certificates from the party.

We wish to make it categorically clear that the Jubilee Party has not issued any such certificate to anyone.

The Jubilee Party is committed to a free, fair, open and democratic process, and is currently in consultation with the IEBC on the matter. As of now the certificates have not even been printed.

It is conceivable that such propaganda tactics are used by some aspirants to scare away potential competition.

We are also aware of some people claiming to be close to His Excellency the Party Leader and His Deputy claiming to be in a position to secure them certificates at a "small fee".

This again is a pure lie and those doing so are just political conmen.

The Party Leader and his Deputy made it very clear in a statement during the NEC meeting on 21st February that they have no preferred candidates and will abide by the choices made by the party members.

Many aspirants have also raised concerns on the number of conditions and documents required in our nominations process. At the nomination stage not all may be necessary. Aspirants are requested to confirm what is mandatory from the party headquarters or check on the party website.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Raphael Tuju', is written over the printed name.
